The first commercial typewriters were introduced in 1874, but did not become common in offices until after the mid-1880s. The typewriter quickly became an indispensable tool for practically all writing other than personal handwritten correspondence. It was widely used by professional writers, in offices, and for business correspondence in private homes.

The history of the Jews in Poland dates back over 1,000 years. For centuries, Poland was home to the largest and most significant Jewish community in the world. Poland was a principal center of Jewish culture, thanks to a long period of statutory religious tolerance and social autonomy. This ended with the Partitions of Poland which began in 1772, in particular, with the discrimination and ...

I know you're not serious, but! This reminds me of something Kenzi said this weekend in California, which is that her least favorite kind of CFAR applicant is the one who says "I have come up with the optimal plan for how to improve my life and the world, but instead of doing it I just sit around and play video games."
